DON'T DROP THE BALL

THE AIM IS TO TEACH STUDENTS ABOUT MAKING THE CORRECT DECISIONS WHILST AT THE SAME TIME BUILDING A BETTER RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE POLICE AND THE YOUTH IN HONG KONG.

This programme was launched in 2008 in conjunction with the Police Crime Prevention Bureau, and there are currently local secondary schools participating in Kwai Tsing, Shatin, Tsuen Wan and Tai Po Districts. Along with introducing students to rugby, they are encouraged to lead a healthy lifestyle and avoid drugs, triads and crime. This is an officially recognized Youth Initiatives for the Police, New Territories South Region.
